June 1 to 7, Cheyenne to Laramie, 184 Miles.
June 2, to Laramie, Wyoming, 60 Miles.

Total, 2,667 Miles.

(Special to The New York Times.) Laramie, Wyoming, June 2.—At last the rain and wind storm has ceased, was awakened at 11 P. M. yesterday at 7 X. L. Ranch, where I received the best of care. Mr. William Acor, in the absence of Foreman Ashley Gleason, royally entertained me. The cook prepared a substantial meal, and at 12:15 A. M. Mr. Acor had my baggage on the wagon and I started over mountains and streams for Borie, a distance of 12 miles.

The weather was perfect and the moon shone brightly. Coyotes were howling a serenade as I walked across country, arriving at Borie at 3:15 A. M. I left Cheyenne, 10 miles north-east of this town, after thanking Mr. Acor and bidding him good-bye, and I was sorry to leave such a good fellow. I continued to Hermosa, where I arrived at 12:45 P. M., 32 miles. I will eat a meal here and take a nap, arriving at Laramie at 7:30 P. M. The residents of towns, which are very far apart, showed great interest and wished me success. Nowhere was my hospitality shown me better than that among these noble ranchmen. Yesterday the distance walked was 9 miles, today 60, and total 2,667.

EDWARD PAYSON WESTON.

KETCHELL PUTS OUT CAPONI

(Special from United Press.) Ketchell picked up a little more easy money here last night when he went on at Jake Carey's club with Tony Caponi and put him out in the ninth with a swift left hook to the jaw. Ketchell was after Caponi from the tap of the gong, doubling him up several times before he came to, but on the first round, the third did Caponi make any showing at all and Ketchell stamped into him so soon as he tried to show fight. The victory was a decisive one but adds nothing to Ketchell's reputation as he had his opponent outclassed at all times.

New York, June 3.—Leach Cross says he hurt his elbow in the mill with Young Ernie last week and therefore cannot fight again for some time. As a result he will not meet Tony Corbett at the Fairmont A. C. on Friday night, but the latter will take on Sammy Smith, a rugged Philadelphia lightweight who has been training for six weeks at Captain Bond's in Stratford, Corbett is in excellent trim now and will make 135 pounds at 6 o'clock for this bout.

BOWLING.

Connecticut is well represented at Madison Square Garden where the National Bowling Association is holding its annual tournament. Eight cities of this State have entered teams, New Haven leading with four; Hartford, two; and one each for Bridgeport, Waterbury, Meriden, Bristol, Greenwich and Stamford. Besides these five men teams there are 21 entered as two men teams and 48 for singles, making a total of 748 entries from the Nutmeg State. The following teams have been entered from the different cities of the State:

Kings Kolls of New Haven—Phillips, Rompf, Riley, Alden, Scheffele, Higgins and Stelzie.

Industrials of New Haven—Cox, McEller, Finlayson, Summers, Gault, McAuliffe, Lenox and Marx.
Republican Club of New Haven—Kelsey, French, Mix, Hall, Powell, Kelly and Hollister.

Silver City club of Meriden—Quinn, Savage, Yost, Pullan, Kuhn, Lynn and Clark.

Grass City club of Waterbury—Stone, Higby, Malsch, Middleton, Teller, Porter and Beardsley.

Tuesday Club of Hartford—Kimberly, Kirsche, Chamberlain, Redfield, Derby, Pratt and Hale.

Richmond Club of Hartford—McKinstry, Pond, Pease, Fix, Richmond, Rogers, Pascol and Alton.

Bristol Club of Bristol—Porter, Griffith, Cucuel, Mathes, Wolcott, Weeks and Parker.

Park City Club of Bridgeport—Munsante, Benson, Banks, Lewis, McConnell and Douglas.

One of the big matches of the tournament was completed yesterday when the champion Brunswick five men team upheld its prestige by defeating Thompson's Colts of Chicago in the final of a three days' series by a total of 8,298 to 7,887. Each man bowled nine games, three each day, and the aggregate of pins dropped counted for the title. The first night the totals were: Brunswick, 2,713; Colts, 2,617; second night, Brunswick, 2,848; Colts, 2,627; third night, Brunswick, 2,737; Colts, 2,643. Last night the Brunswicks won the championship at Pittsburg. Three years earlier it was held by the Chicagoans. Jimmy Watt of this city is a member of the champion team. He is also entered for the Marathon, which will begin at noon today and last until midnight.

In Hartford to-day.

It was wet grounds this time not a cold wave that stopped the game with Holyoke.

Over one quarter of the season gone and the Papermakers have not yet played a game here.

Rather strange to see the second team in standing in the race below the 500 mark, yet that is the case just now.

Only 55 points separate the second and the eighth teams in the league. A great race when Hartford is not considered.

During a game in Meriden on Memorial Day between the Meridians and the Iona Grays (colored) an excited fan arriving late asked the ticket seller "Who's playing New Britain?"

George Bannon looks good for a 300 hitter all the season. George was never anything else and his return to the game in Bridgeport shows him right in his old form.—New Haven Register.

A total of 24,000 paid admissions are estimated as having been taken for the final day games. 7,300 saw the New Haven-Bridgeport games; 5,500 the Springfield-Holyoke; 6,500 the Northampton-Hartford contest; and 4,700 those between New Britain and Waterbury.

C. T. A. U. FIELD DAY IN DANBURY

The C. T. A. U. of Connecticut are planning for a big athletic meet to be held in connection with the state parade in Danbury on June 19th. A fine program of sports has been arranged. Martin Sheridan and several of the best men in the Irish American A. C. are entered. A fine selection of medals is offered as prizes. Entry blanks may be had upon application to Bernard A. Gihuley, P. O. Box No. 1, Danbury. Entries close June 7th.

Irish A. O. H. Bodies Are Now United

New York, June 3.—Matthew Cummings, president of the Ancient Order of Hibernians in America, returned on the Cunard liner Carmania yesterday from his trip to Ireland, where he was sent by the order two months ago with Father Philip J. O'Donnell to unite the scattered bodies of the A. O. H. in Ireland and form an international alliance with the organization here.

"We succeeded, with the support of the priests in uniting several of the small organizations of the A. O. H. in various parts of Ireland," said Mr. Cummings. "There was only one discordant element in our tour, and that was a branch called the Board of Erin, which has been condemned by Cardinal Logue on the ground that it was simply conducted for political purposes and wielded its power at political conventions."

"The Board of Erin did all in its power to injure us, but in spite of that opposition we received an ovation in all the large cities, and fully 40,000 persons assembled in Dublin to give us a hearty send-off when we came away."

terbury.

Thirty-six games should have been played to date by the local team while only 28 have been chalked up. July and August will be the chance for bargain days.

It is rumored that Tommy Corcoran, the greatest short-stop that Cincinnati ever had is to cover that position for New Haven. The fans in that town are beginning to demand the withdrawal of Ambros, who has played all season.

Acting president Heydler of the National league has disallowed the protest of the Brooklyn team of the Pittsburgh game of May 10 which the latter won 6 to 5. Manager Lumley of Brooklyn protested this game on the ground that Wagner of Pittsburgh stepped across the plate to hit at a ball. There were two on for Pittsburgh in first, with Brooklyn leading 5 to 4. Wagner was at the bat and the signal was given to allow him his base on balls. Three wide ones had already been pitched when Honus of the fourth which was equally as wide stepped across the plate and stuck his stick into the sphere. The result was a three bagger and the game for the Pirates.

First Baseman Bowers and Pitcher Barlick have received information from the Holyoke club that they are not to draw any more from the treasury of that organization. Manager McCormack intends to try out Duggan in first. Duggan was on that bag for New Haven last year, but if memory serves right he was a frost. He has been tried out as a pitcher and outfielder by the Papermakers but has not made good.

Frank Beaumont, now with the Holyoke team, is laid up with an injured right wing. Did you ever see Frank when he was not suffering from an injury?

Cy Miller is getting worried about his inability to hit them safe. He is thinking of eating buckwheat flour mixed with sour milk and baking powder. This, it is said, makes a fine batter.

The Authors from the Brass City will make another appearance at Newfield to-morrow. Fans will remember last Saturday's game with this team which was won out in the ninth by the locals.

St. Louis in New York.
Detroit in Boston.
Philadelphia in Philadelphia.
Cleveland in Washington.

This being the first Thursday in the month, and Stratfield Encampment's meeting night, it is anticipated that there will be a goodly number of patriars present. Stratfield Encampment has a large list of candidates for the Patriarchal Degree and it is hoped that the old members will be on hand to assist in every way possible. Don't forget that this is "boosting time" and every one should do a little.

Mayflower Council, D. of A., elected officers last night as follows: Councilor, Mary Gammell; associate councilor, Mrs. G. Whetstone; vice councilor, William Potter; associate vice councilor, Miss Mabel Potter; recording secretary, Mrs. F. B. Finch; assistant recording secretary, Miss Edith Heydler; financial secretary, C. B. Farago; treasurer, William Schaeffer; conductor, Mrs. Ammons; warden, Mrs. Charles Webb; inside guard, Mrs. Clara Strathfield; outside guard, Miss Bertha Halstead; trustee, Miss Jennie Folliet.

TO WED LAWSON'S DAUGHTER.
(Special from United Press.) Boston, June 3.—Thomas W. Lawson's second daughter Marion will wed James F. Lord of Chicago on June 23. Their engagement will be announced on Saturday to a party of friends at the beautiful Lawson residence, Dreamworld, yesterday from Bar Harbor, to be present at the dinner which is being prepared for Saturday night by her father. Mr. Lord is a prominent lumber man with offices both in New York and Chicago. He is 32, while Mrs. Lawson is 18 years his junior.

PITCHERS GETTING INTO GOOD FORM

The pitchers in the American league have been rounding into form within the last few weeks, the batting averages of the sluggers consequently taking a tumble. The official averages find Danny Hoffman, the former Pony star the real leader with the average of .395. Larry Lajoie has been welting the ball hard, having made 41 hits in 33 games. Ty Cobb, the terror of them all is coming along strongly and, within another week should grace the 300 class. Tyus is now batting .297, having made 38 hits in 33 games. The averages follow:

	G.	A.	B.	R.	H.	P.C.
Wolter, Bos. ....	8	17	1	8	.471
Hoffman, St. L. ....	28	96	12	35	.365

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE

Double header at Newfield, Saturday, and both good games.

A. & B. have lost two of their three games played by one run.

Frank White of the Yosts scored the first shut out of the season, letting down the Warner Brothers with four hits.

Brassies have shown unexpected strength this year, losing only to the Warner Brothers 4-2 in a pitchers' battle.

There will be no such thing as the leaders this season if the class of games played so far is to be taken as a criterion. Any team is apt to slip the noose on the other at any time.

Some of those scorers employed by Supervisor Barton ought to take a course with the I. C. S. They seem to know that there are 27 put outs to a game, but don't care who gets them as long as the box score tallies up 27. For instance three Yost men in the Yost-Crane No. 2 game Monday were called out for not touching the bags. In the box score the full 27 put outs were recorded, when only 24 should appear. We don't know who the scorer was, but think he ought to get on himself.

To Benham of the Warner Brothers goes the honor of being the first player ever to be ejected from an Industrial League game. Benham got fresh with Umpire Dillon in the Yost-Warner Brothers game, and the ump had nerve enough to put him out. Christy McGuire received the same dose at Newfield Park from Umpire McCann, but for some reason Tom did not keep Christy out of the game, although the spectators heard the "You're out of the game."

In regard to finances the league has about three times as much money in last season. And at that the league started off last season with more coin than the present season.

Judge of Probate Nobbs' cup will be offered as the prize to the team finishing last.

Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Americans and John McGraw of the New York Nationals also have made strenuous efforts to secure his signature to a contract. Dr. Frank Sexton, the Brown coach, is authority for the statement that Nobbs had not as yet signed up and will not reply to any of the offers until his career at Brown is ended.
